

2020 FWBCC MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Pablo Duque is a saxophonist who grew up in Okaloosa County, and is now in Jacksonville as a Freshman at the University of North Florida. He started learning the instrument in 6th grade, but his career in Jazz bloomed in 7th grade when he joined Meigs Middle School's Jazz Band. From then on he went to achieve MMS's Best Musician Award, Choctaw HS's Directors' Choice Award, the Louis Armstrong Jazz Award, and was a recipient for the FBA Henry Fillmore Composition Competition. He plans to play professionally as well as compose music for people to enjoy.

Melanie Boyd is a sophomore at Pensacola Christian College studying Elementary Education and Music Ministries. She has lived in Shalimar since she was three years old, and has grown up surrounded by music. Music has always been very important to her and she hopes to inspire her students to love music as much as she does.
